Arrest Made in Sexual Assault Investigation

On July 1, RAHB communicated an alleged sexual assault in Hamilton of a Mississauga REALTOR®. As a result, a 58-year-old Mississauga man has been arrested. To read the full press release from Hamilton Police Services, please click the button below.

Full Press Release

If you have had a questionable experience with this alleged attacker or a client within the Strathcona area, we are asking that you report this to Hamilton Police Services so they have it on file for the above case involving the REALTOR® from Mississauga.

Always report any incidences where your safety has been compromised to RAHB and the proper authorities.

Online Realty Shoppe - Launching July 9

RAHB is excited to announce that tomorrow, Thursday, July 9, the Online Realty Shoppe will be launching! Details on how you can shop online for all your business needs will be sent to members soon.

OREA Member Assistance Program

OREA is proud to offer a Member Assistance Program (MAP) called LifeWorks by Morneau Shepell. The MAP is a confidential self-referral service that encourages OREA Members, and their dependents living in their household under the age of 25, to seek help early, before a minor problem becomes more serious.

RAHB provides $17,790 in Support to Three Local Charities Through the REALTORS Care® Foundation

During the COVID-19 crisis, RAHB was proud to be able to support three charities in our communities - Halton Women's Place, Inasmuch House and the Good Shepherd - by providing $17,790 in funding to assist with service continuity. This funding is part of a $480,000 donation made by the OREA that has been distributed by the Ontario REALTORS Care® Foundation.
